

This playground's going to be built in just six hours on August 7.

South Gate Park Playground

Guess who's going to build it?

You are! If you act now, you can be one of 300 Indiana volunteers who get to build a new playground for children in the South Gate area, 1700 Bates Street behind the Bethune Recreational Center August 7. You don't need special skills or training. There's no need for special tools. You just need to be at least 18 years old, be ready to have fun, and get some work done while you're at it.

Bring your friends, your family, your church group, your co-workers.

Starting at 8 am for breakfast, the project will be completed by 3pm. Enjoy lunch, beverages, music and prizes, along with an opening ceremony and special closing ceremony at 3 pm. Rain or shine, this playground's going to get built, thanks to your efforts.

Build captains and site preparers, we need you, too!

Skilled builders are invited to become Build Captains to take on a leadership role on August 7, 2010. Captains attend a 45-minute orientation on Prep Day, August 5-6, 2010. All are welcome to help prepare the playground site on August 5-6, 2010.

Hurry! Only 300 lucky volunteers can be accepted. Act now!
